SUPPLEMENT TO

1. It is reported that a book, entitled Laszlo Rajk and His Accomplices
Before the National Court (Laszlo Rajk i njegovi saucesnici pred Narodim sudom), is being used for indoctrination of agents and is also to be smuggled into Yugoslavia.

- 2. The book is printed in Budapest in the Cyrillic alphabet; the only date appearing on the outside sheets is 85.166/2/1949 (sic). The volume, six by eight inches in size, consists of 315 pages and is printed on a fair grade of paper. The front of the paper cover is blue, the back white; the title is printed in white.
- 3. The book, which has neither an introduction nor a conclusion, contains an enumeration of the charges, statements of the defendants, testimony of the witnesses, the prosecutor's address, the defense address, the summing-up of prosecution, pronouncement of sentence, and miscellaneous items, including the names of the lawyers, the jury, and the foreign correspondents who attended the trial.
